PARIS, Oct. 24 .- Rumanian demands PARIS, Oct. 24.—Rumanian demands for a rectification of the frontiers fixed in the determination of the western borders of Rumania have been refused by the Supreme Council of the peace conference, according to information received from French sources. Rumania, through Premier Bratiano, asked she be given both banks of the Maros River as far as Tisza, that the cities of Bekes and Csaba be included within her frontiers and that the ecovered sufficiently to conference, according to information conference, according to information received from French sources. Rumania, through Premier Bratiano, asked she be given both banks of the Maros River as far as Tisza, that the cities of Bekes and Csaba be included within her frontiers and that the boundary between Rumania and Hungary be moved westward to a line fourteen miles west of the railroad running between the cities of Arad and Temesvar.

Discussing the protection of ethnical minorities, the Copreme Council declared the powers were unanimous in maintaining the general principles which were the basis of peace, but stated there was no intention to infringe upon the independence of Rumania.

Compromise Is Offered
Under the territorial settlement Rumania is given the province of Transylvania, in Southeastern Hungary, with an area of 120,000 square kilometers and rich in minerals. If it loses Rumanian residents in cities like Gyula, thirty miles directly north of Arad, or in the country districts accorded to Hungary, she receives cities like Arad, one of the two great railroad centers in Southern Hungary, and Oradiamare, the population of Arad and Oradiamare comprising numerous liungarians. These represented the intense anti-alien feeling prevailing among the conservative coalitionists and the fear that the government is trying in the present stage of the bill to annul amendments which those hostile to aliens secured in the committee stage.

Some surprise is expressed that the labor members and the so-called Free Liberals joined in the vote against the government on this issue, thereby identifying themselves with the anti-alien faction, contrary to the avowed principles of their leaders.

It is believed in some quarters that the government on Monday will ask the House to reconsider the vote, and in view of certain circumstances it is regarded as possible that the House in view of certain circumstances it is regarded as possible that the House may comply. These circumstances concern the convention entered into between Great Britain and France in 1813, in which it was agreed that French pilots might bring French ships into certain English ports and that English pilots should be granted a reciprocal privilege in French ports.

It is contended that unless the House of Commons revises yesterday's vote the government will be compelled to denounce the convention and incur the reproach of treating the compact as "a scrap of paper."

The anti-alien reply to this is that the convention was concluded secretly and that information about it was dragged from a reluctant government only illungarians.

On the other hand, Rumania will not retain full control of the Arad-Casaba Railroad, running north from Arad. The council settled the vexed question of the disposition of the Banat by dividing it between Rumania and Serbia.

Foreign Minister Trumbitch of Scrbia, who arrived in Paris yesterday from Belgrade, brought with him authorization from the Serbian government to sign the Austrian peace treaty, says the "Petit Parisien" to-day. The signature, however, may be with reservations, the newspaper adds.

Serbia, like Rumania, failed to sign the Austrian treaty because of objections on the part of the Jugo-Slava to the clause in the instrument dealing with racial minorities.

This controversy is sharply reflected in the press. Judging from the tone of the junker organs, they feel heavily hit by the testimony of von Bernstorf. The "Tageszeitung" attacks him for having an American wife, while the "Tageliche Rundschau" summarizes the evidence with anti-Semitic innuendoes against two of the sharpest questioners—Dr. Sinsheimer and Dr. Cohn.

Old Rulers Compromised

The general feeling in government circles is that the inquiry thus far has been highly successful in compromising the old régime, especially the military party, while the ex-ambassodor to the United States has fully cleared his skirts of all responsibility not only for the activity of Germany's American policy.

That the military rulers of Germany's American policy.

That the military rulers of Germany double-crossed von Bernstoff's peace negotiations with President Wilson was learly revealed by several answers made by the former ambassador. He evently was disinclined to divulge matters reflecting unfavorably on others.

Nevertheless he was more outspoken to-day than previously. Several times his answers were prefired with slightly appologetic references to his oath or his obligation to answer direct questions, after which answers came that amounted to heavy blows against the old military regime. LONDON, Oct. 24.—The Bolsheviki are considering the evacuation of Soviet Russia, according to reports to General Denikine, says a wireless dispatch received to-day from his headquarters. The reported plan is for the removal of the Cabinet to Tashkend after the abandonment of Moscow and the withdrawal of the troops on all fronts to Turkestan. One dispatch predicted that if Tula, 120 miles south of Moscow, were taken the Bolshevik commissaries would abandon their present capital and retire into Turkestan. Recent reports from General Denikine's front announced that the Soviet forces had begun to fortify the suburbs of Tula, War Minister Trotzky having declared that a general battle must be fought outside that town.)
